

Many Activities Planned During SWOSU Jazz Festival

02.08.2005

Many activities are planned during the 35th annual Southwestern Oklahoma State University Jazz Festival this weekend (February 10-12) on the Weatherford campus.

Several guest artists including trumpet player Tom Williams and vocalist Delores King Williams, both of Washington, D.C., and drummer Drori Mondlak of New York City will be at SWOSU for the activities. The SWOSU Jazz Ensemble "A", directed by Dr. Terry Segress, will also play a big part in the festival. Other featured performers at this year's SWOSU Jazz Festival are saxophonist Michael Cox, trombonist Robert Chambers, saxophonist and keyboard player David Hanson, and bassist Lynn Seaton.

The two main jazz festival concerts will be held on Friday, February 11, at 1 and 8 p.m. in the Fine Arts Center on the SWOSU campus. General admission tickets are $12.50 and student tickets are $5. Tickets for the concerts are now available by calling the SWOSU Music Department at 580.774.3708.
